PRESS RELEASE

63rd Annual Playground Revue

Miami Beach, FL - The City of Miami Beach Parks & Recreation Department's 63rd Annual Playground Revue, themed "Miami Beach Goes Latin", was a huge success.

The Playground Revue is the highlight of each summer camp season. The show is a traditional fun night of entertainment for children grades kindergarten through 12th. Campers from all different camp sites acted out song and dance routines to a standing room audience at the Jackie Gleason Theater of Performing Arts.

Adding to the excitement was celebrity emcee from Fox TV Channel 7, news anchor Craig Stevens who opened the evening show. Also, the audience enjoyed a big screen slide show of photographs taken during participants activities throughout the summer. For the first time this year, summer campers and Recreation staff joined together for a special surprise finale filled with various Latin rhythms that kept the audience on their feet until the last beat.
